Dear Mr. Schneider and Nestlé Leadership Team,

We write to you as B4Ukraine, a coalition of Ukrainian and international civil society organizations working to curtail the financial resources enabling the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

We have written to you previously regarding Nestlé's ongoing operations in Russia. We have received responses to our letters and the latest communications can be found here.

B4Ukraine, in collaboration with the Kyiv School of Economics, is planning to publish a report containing information regarding company financial contributions in Russia, since the full-scale invasion, including those of Nestlé. We are writing to formally enquire about the following information:

- According to the analysis by the Kyiv School of Economics based on the Federal Tax Service of Russia, Nestlé is one of a handful of companies which has not published information regarding its profit tax contribution in Russia in 2023. Is the company willing to disclose this data? If not, please provide a reason.
- Estimated data from the Kyiv School of Economics, based on the 2021 company filings with the Federal Tax Service of Russia and the 2022 estimates made by INFOline, indicates that Nestlé is among the highest contributors of profit taxes in Russia in 2023.
- What was the company's total revenue in Russia for the year 2023? What was the total amount of profit tax and other taxes the company paid in Russia in 2023?

We would appreciate it if you could confirm the accuracy of this information or provide corrections if necessary, along with any supporting documents. Additionally, we would welcome any context or comments Nestlé wishes to provide regarding these figures and its operations in Russia.

B4Ukraine maintains high standards of information verification before publishing. We are providing you with an opportunity to respond concerning the facts we wish to present. We will be awaiting a response from you by August 29, 2024. If we don't receive a response from you, we will indicate this in our publication.

Yours truly,

The B4Ukraine Coalition
